

I am dissatisfied with the current quality of captioning today. Words are frequently misspelled, captions show up on the wrong part of the screen (covering vital information), sometimes there is a serious delay between audio and captioning transmission, and once in a while shows that are supposed to be captioned end up not being captioned. Most of all, I want captions on all channels at all times!